Preface

"Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven."

The remarkable sale of LITTLE BRANCHES, published in 1893, LITTLE BRANCHES No. 2, published in 1896, and LITTLE BRANCHES No. 3, published in 1899, assures us that a kindly reception is awaiting

LITTLE BRANCHES No. 4.

Similar in style and quality to those in the three preceding volumes, these songs are sure to find their way into the church, home and concert, to bless, cheer and gladden the hearts of young and old.

The entire contents are new, having been prepared expressly for this book, and no songs contained in the three previous volumes will be found herein. A number of Marching Songs—always so popular with the children—have been presented: Solos and Duets for special occasions, home and concert use, have been added to a liberal variety of other useful and pleasing compositions.

The thousands of children who were instructed, entertained and made happy by the songs of the first three books, will find in this, the fourth, a still richer mine of wealth, pleasure and gladness.

"And whoso shall receive one such little child in my name, receiveth me."

THEODO HARRIS.

1. Look on Thy lit - tle ones, Fa - ther, to - day,
 2. Six days of toil and work Our por - tion are;
 3. Fol - lies be - set our path, Dan - gers sur - round;

While from all world - ly joys Turn we a - way:
 Oft - en our hearts must know Something of care.
 Oft - en our feet must tread Un - hal - lowed ground.

We ask not wealth or fame, We come in Je - sus' name;
 But from our work and play We cease this ho - ly day:
 Guide Thou our wand'ring feet Back to Thy mer - cy - seat;

Thy bless - ing, Lord, we claim Each sab - bath day.
 We put our toys a - way Each sab - bath day.
 Be with us when we meet Each sab - bath day.

THORO HARRIS.

1. Je - sus, high in glo - ry, Lend a list'n - ing ear;
 2. We are lit - tle chil - dren, Weak and apt to stray;
 3. Help us now to love Thee, Take our sins a - way,

When we bow be - fore Thee, Children's praises hear.
 Sav - ior, guide and keep us In the nar - row way,
 Help us to be watch - ful Lest from Thee we stray;

Thou art wise and ho - ly, Thou art great and strong;
 Save us, Lord, from sin - ning, Watch us hour by hour;
 Then when Thou shalt call us To our heav'n - ly home,

Glad when we do right - ly, Grieved when we do wrong.
 Keep us safe, and shield us From temp - ta - tion's power.
 We will glad - ly an - swer, "Sav - ior, lo, we come."
